The total dividend payout is based on the number of outstanding GDF SUEZ shares as of December 31, 2010 – i.e., 2,250,295,757 shares. On the date of the dividend payment, the dividend corresponding to the Company's treasury stock will be allocated to "Other Reserves".

Under Article 158, paragraph 3-2° of the French General Tax Code, the entire dividend is eligible for the 40% deduction available to individuals who are tax residents of France. The final dividend will be declared on May 4, 2011 and will be paid in cash on May 9, 2011.

Pursuant to applicable law, the Shareholders' General Meeting hereby notes that dividend payouts for the previous three fiscal years were as follows:

(2) This number corresponds to shares carrying dividend rights at the time of payment of the final dividend for 2008 in May 2009. It is lower than the number at the time of payment of the interim dividend for 2008 due to the purchase of treasury stock not entitled to dividends between these two dates.

(3) €1.40 of the dividend distributed under the continuing policy of annual dividend payouts and €0.80 as a one-time increase.

(4) This number corresponds to shares carrying dividend rights at the time of payment of the final dividend for 2009 in May 2010. It is comparable to the number at the time of payment of the interim dividend in 2009.

Shareholders who choose to be represented by a proxy of their choosing may provide notification of this appointment or revoke it:

- by posted letter addressed to Société Générale, Service des assemblées générales, either directly for the holders of registered shares, or through the authorized intermediary who manages their shares account for holders of bearer shares. Only letters received by Société Générale, Service des assemblées générales, no later than three calendar days before the date of the Shareholders' Meeting will be taken into account;
- according to the provisions of Article R.225-79 of the French Commercial Code, notifications of the appointment or revocation of a proxy may also be sent by electronic means, by going to www.ag.gdfsuez.com and following the procedure set out in point 2 below.

If a shareholder sells their shares after sending their instructions and before the third working day before the Shareholders' Meeting, the authorized banking or financial intermediary that manages their bearer share account must provide notice of such sale to Société Générale, Service des assemblées générales, which will invalidate or amend the distance vote, proxy, or entry card as appropriate.

2. Conditions of online voting at the Shareholders' Meeting

GDF SUEZ provides its shareholders with a dedicated website for online voting in advance of the Shareholders' Meeting. This dedicated website (www.ag.gdfsuez.com) allows shareholders to state how they wish to participate by telecommunication means prior to the Shareholders' Meeting under the following conditions:

- for holders of registered shares: a letter will have been addressed to them by Société Générale containing their access code to log on to the website; their username will appear on the distance voting form or proxy voting form that will be sent to them at a later date; they will then be able to vote online by following the procedure shown on the screen;

- for holders of bearer shares: the online voting request must be addressed to Société Générale, Service des assemblées générales, stating "Vote via internet" and attaching the attendance certificate issued by the financial intermediary that manages their share account. On receipt of this request, together with the attendance certificate, Société Générale will inform shareholders, by letter sent to the address shown on the certificate, of their username and access code needed to log on to the website. Shareholders will then be able to vote.

This secure dedicated web page for voting prior to the Ordinary and Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting will be accessible from Wednesday, April 13, 2011 until Friday, April 29, 2011 (Paris time), the last working day before the Shareholders' Meeting.

In order to avoid any overloading of online communications, which could result in their electronic voting form not being recorded, shareholders are asked not to wait until the final days before voting.
