

Key figures on mobility

Mobility around the world

Mobility is responsible for 28% of global energy consumption

Source : AIE

Mobility is 95% dependent on oil

Source : Commissariat Général au Développement Durable (the French General Commission on Sustainable Development)

The global vehicle market grew by 57% in 2017

Source : McKinsey

There were 3.1 million electric vehicles in use worldwide during 2017

Source : AIE

ENGIE: a global stakeholder in green mobility

The bus fleets of 17 French cities now use ENGIE vehicle natural gas

European market leader in vehicle natural gas, with a network of more than 150 VNG filling stations in Europe

85 LNG (Liquefied Natural Gas) filling stations in Europe by 2021 (including around 30 in France)

More than 85,000 electric vehicle charging points installed worldwide, either directly or with partners

ENGIE has supplied embedded connected systems for 24,000 buses and 1,900 trains worldwide

ENGIE has installed more than 7,000 electric vehicle charging points in France and the Benelux countries

